Introduction

In gathering the material for this booklet I was assisted by Peter Garber, Saloma R. Cline, Ruth E. Williams, Christina S. Garber and Ira L. Garber.

We have spent much time and pains-taking in arranging it. Should there be any errors I shall appreciate the information.

EXPLANATION

The first number indicates the generation to which the person belongs, the second number refers to the place in that generation.

Example: 1—1. Jacob Garber, signifies that he is first of the first generation.

2—3. Levi Garber, signifies that he is of the second generation and third in this generation.

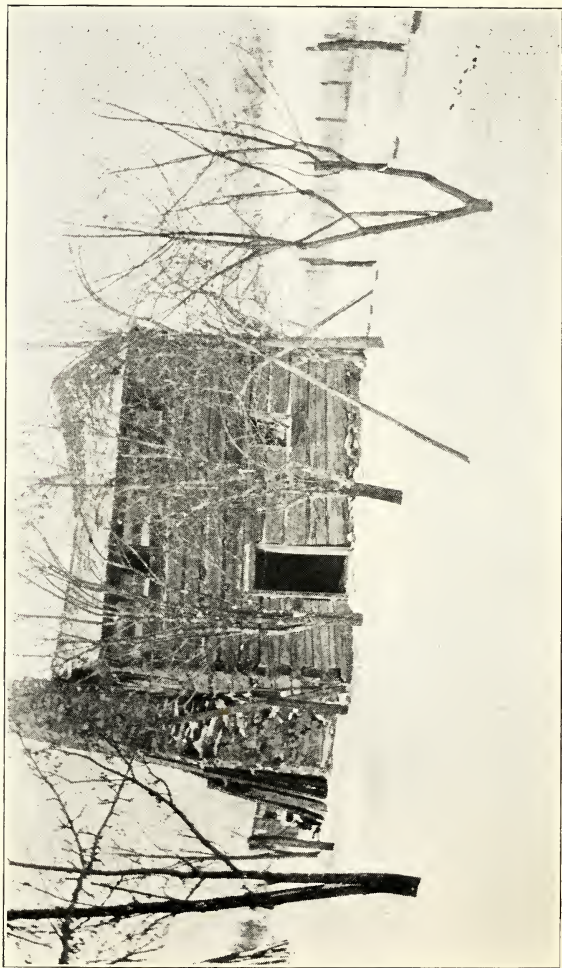

3—5. William Allen Garber, denotes that he is in the third generation and fifth in this generation.

Husbands and wives have the same numbers with each other.

S. W. GARBER,

Ottumwa, Iowa.

March 1, 1919.

Birthplace of Jacob Garber. Removed a short time ago.

JOHN GARBER moved from York County Pennsylvania, to Shenandoah County, Virginia, about the year 1775 or 1776. He was the first minister of the Church of the Brethren in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. He died in 1787.

Barbara Garber, his wife, survived him about twenty-one years, being seventy-five years old at the time of her death. They were the parents of seven sons and three daughters, viz., John, Samuel, Martin, Anna, Abraham, Jacob, Daniel, Catherine, Joseph, and Magdalene. Six of these sons and two sons-in-law were distinguished ministers of the Church of the Brethren. One son was a deacon.

Abraham Garber, his son, married Elizabeth Humbert of Augusta County, and settled on the farm known as the Garber Farm near New Hope, Augusta County, about 1790 or 1792. This farm ever since has been occupied by his descendents. First occupied by his son Samuel Garber, then by Samuel's son William Garber, also by William's son Charles Garber.

Abraham Garber was born November 10, 1760, and died February 16, 1848. He was the Founder and Elder of the Middle River Congregation. He donated and built the first house of worship, of the Church of the Brethren in Augusta County. This was a commodious brick building erected in the year 1824, on a beautiful and convenient location on his farm. This has been the scene of many sacred events, and other noted scenes. The cemetery near by reveals a history. Here the Annual Conference was held in 1851.

On Sunday, June 5, 1864, an engagement of the Civil War strife, known as the Piedmont Battle, took place near by. This church house was occupied by caring for wounded soldiers of the Southern troops during the battle. Its use as an hospital was continued for near a month afterward.

(See Note under record of Frederick Kline.)

This building having served its purpose, it was removed in 1884, and the present house was then built.

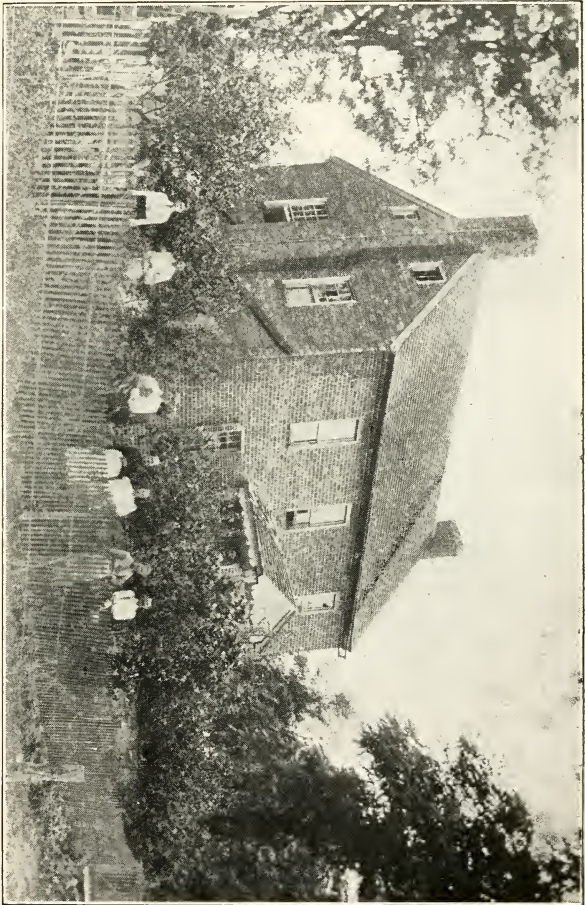

Abraham Garber's wife, Elizabeth, died in 1838. To them were born four sons and three daughters, viz.:

1. John Garber, oldest son of Abraham and Elizabeth Garber, was born July 14, 1792. He served in the ministry 30 years. He was the only son of this family who served in the ministry. Elder B. B. Garber, of the Middle River Congregation is a grandson of his.
2. Daniel Garber, born October 23, 1793.
3. Jacob Garber, born October 28, 1797.
4. Samuel Garber, born September 22, 1806. He was the youngest member of the family. The daughters were:
  1. Mary Garber, married _____ Arion.
  2. Sallie Garber, married _____ Whitmore.
  3. Esther Garber, married _____ Stoner. She was the youngest daughter. In the early part of the 1870's she moved with her son Levi Stoner to Preble County, Ohio.

(NOTE—The original purpose of these pages was to give a brief record of the descendants of Jacob Garber, the third son of the above mentioned Abraham Garber. In the efforts of securing information the above very incomplete record was also obtained. It is very much appreciated as a bit of history of our ancestral fathers and kindred.)
